Eve of St. Clair 1951

God Bless you Brother Leo - you and yours

Just a line to thank you and your young associates -- novices and candidates -- for your charitable remembrance for my privileged name-day.

We hope and pray they all pray for vocations; to multiply all over the world - in every order and every society and phase of Catholic action. Thus they will at once be doing real missionary work and insuring their own holy vocation - and perseverance therein. For no one who appreciates his vocation, as such a grace deserves, and is duly grateful will fail to pray for a multiplication of further vocations.

Thank God we have a very promising bouquet of brother-candidates - including a very care-free, happy ducky.

.....Glory be to God!
