

FATHER SOLANUS, NOTEBOOK No. 9

Pg. 19 Three Degrees of Tallent; Physical, Intellectual, Rational or (6/99)

That no grace is given to men but as a fruit of prayer, is the teaching of many fathers & doctors of the Church, e.g. SS. Basil, Augustine, Jerome, Ambrose, Bernard, etc.

"die Liebe zu Gott mit Verachtung der Selbstsucht gründete die himlische Stadt; und die Selbstliebe mit Verachtung Gottes gründete die irdische."

Pg. 20 Feast of Purification 1900 A.D.
God Present.

"If Directors are not men of prayer," says S. Teresa, Their learning will avail little; for many go astray by wishing to have the Spirit of God in their minds without trying to possess it in their hearts.

"Forsake all and thou shalt find all; relinquish desire & thou shalt find rest."
Imitation Book III-32

"Quaerite legendo et invenietis meditando; pulsate orando et aperietur vobis contemplando"

S. Bernard

"The poor stretch forth the hand; but God receives what is offered."

St. Peter Chrysologus
(+450 aged 35 C & E.D.)