God bless you Eileen Casey dear Niece of ours--

God bless you and yours.

Only now I come to your letter of Dec. 19th - after 11 p.m. God help us! I hardly know how the time slips by. Your cousin Mildred called from Chicago a week or so back and I had a little word with several of them including Captain Florence Casey was just then being transferred to Detroit Mich. Thanks be to God they all seem to be well - including even your Aunt - "Grandma Grace". In fact Grace gave me a pleasant surprise - a "congratulations..." on my 83rd birthday. Your Uncles Pat and Owen also wrote and Mgr. Edw'd. All well Dec Gr.!

Blessed be the Most Holy Trinity in every tick of time! God bless you Eileen again - two months after this was supposed to be yours. Looking for something quite different late last night I felt ashamed of myself to find these cards still "just snowed under" (all kinds of letters, etc) Please God I'll get it off today. I hope you are keeping well these days - at once so restless, so foreboding in in the materialistic world; yet by the grace and mercy of God, so colorful and so promising!
