

1945, October 2

The following is a faithful transcription of the handwritten original by the Servant of God, Father Solanus Casey, O.F.M.Cap.

St. Michael's Church
225 Jerome Street
Brooklyn 7, N. Y.
Oct. 2, 1945
Feast of Holy Guardian Angels

God bless you Muriel Krausman:

I hope you are well--you and all your dear ones.

Many thanks for your recent favors. I hope that someday you'll just wake up and start to live for God one day at a time, forgetting the fickleness of creatures--especially if they figure on getting "a nest in this world where they can find true happiness." The only tree in which to find place to build such a nest, is the Church that provides the material to build in untold graces from God--all sizes--with crosses for cement. Without such cement no one on earth can get very far with anything like getting a little taste of Heaven in this world.

So let us not take it over serious when trials and disapointments--from whatever source--catch us sleeping. In other words it never pays to become discouraged--at the faults of others or at our own. The sooner we come to realize our own stupidity and unworthyness of the blessings surrounding our whole life and in which we are immured--the air we breathe, the light of the heavens we enjoy by night and by day and all movies of visible creation. (All in the natural) To say nothing of the unseen, the supernatural!--the sooner we'll find peace.

God bless you again, and Daddy, and little Judy, and all.

Praised be Jesus, Mary, and Joseph!

Fr. Sol.

P.S.--God bless you again M.K. Hope things are still bright--and brightening.

Fr. Solanus O.F.M.Cap..

P.S.--Columbus Day. This came back yesterday for the 2nd time. So.--.???