Rev. Dear Father Guardian:

God bless you and all the Brethren.

Thanks be to His merciful providence for all His blessed designs. Whether to my discredit or otherwise, I am still here in this remarkable part of country. Instead of a day as I figured on, its more coming a week since I arrived in Los Angeles. - A name well befitting such a gentle wonder-land.

Last Saturday, after Fr. Stephen (O.F.M. Cap) wired to you, he informed us that the very best he could do - in regard to transportation - was to get "reservations for next Thursday (12th) instead of yesterday (9th) for Seattle, so that I may use my "pass" to St. Paul. To get on the train as I proposed, without reservation, he stressed would be foolhardiness. So here I am still - hoping to make the best of missing the privileges of the Chapter.

With one or two exceptions, I have met all my nephews and nieces and their children. A few of them seem "straying the way of worldlings," but thank God that seems rather exceptional - here and in San Francisco, in Portland and in Seattle. After all, however, it is not going to be my presence that will work anything worthwhile. Rather it will be someone's prayers.
