Pg. 17 Words of Chrysostom on occasion
of

His first Exile A. D. 403

"Violent storms encompass me on all sides; yet I am without fear, because I stand upon a rock. Though the seas roar and the waves rise high, they cannot sink the vessel of Jesus. I fear not death, which is my gain; nor banishment for the whole earth is the Lord's: nor the loss of goods, for I came naked into the world, and must leave it in the same condition. I despise all the terrors of the world, and trample upon its smiles & favor. Nor do I desire to live unless for your service. Christ is with me: whom shall I fear? Though waves rise against me, though the sea, though the fury of princes threaten me, all these are to me more contemptible than a spider's web. I always say: O Lord, may thy will be done: not what this or that creature wills, but what it shall please Thee to appoint, that shall I do and suffer with joy. This is my strong tower; this is my unshaken rock: this is my staff that can never fail. If God be pleased that it be done, let it be so. Wheresoever his will is that I be, I return Him thanks."
