

FATHER SOLANUS, NOTEBOOK No. 9

Pg. 20 "Reason, as the mistress of the little kingdom within each one of us, should call the will to frequent account, and the other faculties of the soul & senses of the body - as the stuart & other servants are called, that the master may know how his business stands, i.e. his profits & losses - & to see that each one of his house hold receives enough and nothing superfluous or extravagant.
S. Chrysostum

8/31/1900

Indignant remark & consolation when on Sunday after, I acknowledged my fault.

Consider the contrast between the biographies of the two saintly friends Athanasius & Basilus (who never saw each other on Earth) the former the champion of the Second Person of the Bl. Trinity; the latter that of the Holy Ghost.

-- Fortitude in different colors, etc.

Pg. 21 Letter of Aug. 15th 1900 & circumstances.
Novena Dec. 8th 1900 object & letter rec'd.
Liberality before Christmas (A.D. 1900) & consoling surprise.
Dignitas Eius qui Frater vocatur, quid oporteat esse. B.V.M. Desponsatis. 1/ /1900

Patroc. S. Joseph. Beware of silent criticism - (with L.u.g. about fr. Caj.)

Rosary in bed & bells not heard Dec. 31-
Jan. 1, 1902

A.D. 1902 Examination, etc. & quotation from V. Testam. Good-friday night - answer aloud - "no progress in virtue without mortification."