

1952, June 27

The following is a faithful transcription of the typed original by the Servant of God, Father Solanus Casey, O.F.M.Cap.

June 27, Octave of Sacred Heart, '52. Bles'd be God forever (And)
In all His Designs.

Miss Eileen Casey
Tokyo, Japan

God bless you My Dear Neice Eileen:-
you and yours. And may the peace of the saints be ours, here and beyond the hopeful borders of this solemn pilgrimage — after all but a momentary "vestibule to eternal realities". For the severalth time I am starting again a response to your pathetic plaint of April 24th. I do hope this finds you in every way as healthy and hopeful as it leaves us all here at the Friary. Deo Gr. How wonderful, even tho' full of mystery at every turn, are not His - God's own - works and ways! always in the final - never failing in the turning to the Glory of God and the happiness of the faithful, the appreciative, the grateful, and true. History abounds with examples most telling of this happy contention; mediaeval and modern as well as - nay, infinitely surpassing anything - in the ancient world, for real, "excelsior chivalry" and for inspiring loyalty to faith and eternal principle; — divine appreciation, remeration always infinitely in the leade.

Beautifully romantic and hope-inspiring at once are always the examples of humble confidence, of unhesitating obedience to God and authority, of persevering loyalty in the face of contradiction to faith and principles of RELIGION, — after all and in reality the only science that gives purpose to every other science, "The Science of our happy dependence on God and our neighbor." Or; if you will: "Religion, the Science of our happy relationship with and our providential dependence on God and our neighbor.

Hopeful borders of this solemn pilgrimage

(unfinished draft)

(Eileen Casey Hennessey, daughter of Leo Casey)