

c. 1946

The following is a faithful transcription of the typed original by the Servant of God, Father Solanus Casey, O.F.M. Cap.

Miss Mildred Maueal , page 2.

page two

"God condescends to use our powers, If we don't spoil His plans by ours." God's plans are always for the best: always wonderful. But most especially for the patient and the humble who trust in Him are His plans unfathomably holy and sublime.

Let us, therefore, not weaken. Let us hope when darkness seem to surround us. Let us thank Him at all time and under whatever circumstances. Thank Him for our creation and our existence, Thank Him for every thing--for His plans in the past that by our sins and our want of appreciation and patience have so often frustrated and that He so often found necessary to change. Let us thank Him for all His plans for the future--for trials and humiliations for as well as got joys and consolations; for sickness and whatever death He may deign to plan; and with the inspired Psalmist let us call all the creatures of the universe to help us praise adore and Him Who is the Divine Beginning and the everlasting Good--the Alpha and the Omega.