Rev. Mother Augustine
The Pines
Chatham, Ontario

Rev. Dear Mother Me. Augustine:

Many thanks for your kind favor of May 28th. I inscribed Mr. Panyard's name as requested and am sending his certificate under separate cover.....
.....I have not the least doubt that the trouble he finds himself in is meant to be a blessing in disguise....If his friends promise something specially pleasing to God, and surely if he himself promised weekly Communion for 6 months - or at least monthly - for a year, everything will be OK....
