

FATHER SOLANUS, NOTEBOOK No. 3.

Pg. 3. (con't) I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not near.
 A Star shall rise out of Jacob and a sceptre shall spring up from Israel and shall strike the chiefs of Moab. (Numb. XXIV 17)

How beautiful are thy tabernacles O Jacob, and thy tents O Israel! As woody valleys, as watered gardens near the rivers, as tabernacles which the Lord hath pitched, as cedars by the waterside."

"She is easily seen by them that love her and found by them that seek her." (Wis. VII 3-14)

Pg. 4. Blank

Pg. 5. Mary Loves Us - Desires our Love

"Great is the concourse of people desiring to see and to hear the Queen of Heaven," wrote the Martyr St. Ignatius to St. John, and St. Denis the Aeropagite was most happy to be presented to her by the same Evangelist.

"O my most amiable Lady!" exclaimed Bl. Alphonsus Rodriguez once in prayer to Mary, - I love thee more than myself; but alas! thou dost not love me as I love thee." "Not so, my Alfonsus," she answered, "I love thee more than it is possible for thee to love me. Nay, my love so far surpasses thine as Heaven is above Earth."

"Be astonished O ye heavens! at this," she cries out with Jerem; "they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters and have digged to themselves cisterns broken cisterns that can hold no water." Jerem. (II 12-13)

"I am called by all, the Mother of Mercy, and truly the mercy of my son hath made me merciful, and he is miserable who will not when he can, approach mercy." (Rev. to St. Brigit lib. II).

Pg. 6. Blank

Pg. 7. For what participation hath justice with injustice? Or what fellowship hath light with darkness? II Cor. VI 14.

"Hail shall overturn the hope of falsehood; and waters shall overflow its protection. And your league with death shall be abolished and your covenant with hell shall not stand. Isaias XXVIII 17.
