

The folowing is a faithful transcription of the handwritten original message on a Christmas
card by the Servant of God, Father Solanus Casey, O.F.M. Cap.

1942, December 17

DAILY COMMUNION

With love and with Christmas blessings to all
Comes the Infan once more to free us from sorrow
Whose love and Whose power and Whose gentleness call
To each heart and Each soul for a manger tomorrow.

Whose love and Whose Wisdom, Whose wonders proclaim
Him the Son of the Virgin as promised of your.
O may He estrange us from sin with its shame
And reigh in our hearts as His crib ever more!

God bless you Brother Patrick
Glad to hear your busy.
I hope you keep up your frequent and daily communions.
Lord have mercy on John and Thom. It was a great consolation to know that they had been practical in this - John for 17 yrs was daily communicant.
Thanks be to God. Deo Gratias.

....your Bro. B.

Fr. Solanus