

FATHER SOLANUS, NOTEBOOK NO. 1.

Page 43
Cont.

- Sep 19 Eliz. Reuschling 44 non catholic enrolled by Cath. neighbor in June - full of cancer - liver; stomach, throat, breast and 27 on her back. Suffered terribly wanted to be a Catholic but had lost her sight, and at times mind also. Hour and half before death received sight - seeing husband and friends - and something else that extremely delighted her. Clapping her hands and exclaiming "O how beautiful!", died very happily - bidding husband & all "Good Bye".
- Oct. 12 Catherine Arata from Cincinnati in anxiety arrives here by interurban trolley at 9 a.m. enrolls Jewish Banker Samuel Lehman who cheated her of her "will and legacy $10,000. and now is in dying condition. We hope he will wake up and get a conscience before going before God.
- Oct 13 Mrs. Mary E. Reynolds 59 of Clinton Ont. Ca. 17 years with Epli. Fits, enrolled July (abot) 25th has not had a shadow of an attack since. Deo Gr.
- Miss Viatrice Aylor, non Cath. Heart trouble. Enrolls perpetually
- Oct. 20 To-day (P.M.) went to Mt Vernon Mem. Park, had supper with colored folks in Dexter - Too bad some one cannot go to them regularly for service a good field.
- Page 44
Oct. 28 Penticitis - Pertinitis. 9:45 About ten minutes ago Miss A. Horny who had enrolled John Daley her 14 yr-old nephew two days ago as an annual member, requested over phone that I enroll him now as perpetual member. Before requesting the perpetual membership complained that the boy had very little improved. Now tells me he has gone into good sleep. pertinitis
- Oct. 30 Out of danger
- Oct 29 Mrs. Mary (Leo) Gabourin reports (after enrolling him) that her husband Leo was trapped three years ago last august - dropped into cellar and three days was kept unknown to his family (Wife & 2 children) for three days. He has had to pay $10 per week all this time besides twice $50. Kept in suspense continually and family in anxiety. We are enrolling
- Nov 14 Ed. Martz enrolls Poor Souls whenever trouble threatens. Night before last he enrolled them that they might help him find mistake of $10,000.00. Yesterday first thing in the morning the mistake was discovered without the least delay. Bank with which the deal made the mistake. Ed. Exclaimed: "There's the Mass-Association!" -- Like a miracle. Ordinarily it would probably taken a week.