

FATHER SOLANUS, NOTEBOOK No. 9

Pg. 9

IN DIEM VIVAM
in Novitiate

"If you desire to love crosses, learn first to forego unnecessary pleasures." - reasonable & natural!

"Willingly to serv God must be happiness" 5/23/97

"In omnibus rebus amor Domini" Pent. '97

Quid me ipso: quid non, Deo adiuvante?" 6/11/97

Dryness a humiliation & punishment '97

Pg. 10

"False humility trouble & the sadness we feel at sight of our sins are among the most subtle of the devil's snares," Humility & sorrow which comes from God, consoles and pacifies the soul.

St. Teresa

"One of the best means to continue in the practice of those good purposes we make in prayer is that we recollect the reason which had influenced us to form them; because that which occasioned the 1st thought will afterwards help us to conserve & practice it."

St. Austin

"O Lord, if Thou art pleased to bestow thy gifts upon me be thou the guardian thereof thyself, for I have a diffidence in myself and I am a great robber who may prove bankrupt to Thee."

St. Francis

"God chose a life of suffering.
- The Way the Truth & the Life."